CUET Online Coaching | CUET Coaching In Lucknow

The Common University Entrance Test (UG) (CUET) is a common entrance test for all UG, PG, and Ph.D. courses offered in central universities across India. This exam is conducted once a year. This paper is divided into two parts – A & B. Both the parts have MCQ type of questions. Candidates have to focus on scoring well to be at the top of the merit list.

CUET gives a fair chance to each candidate to test their skills on topics like – General Awareness, General Aptitude, English, Reasoning, and Analytical Skills. All the candidates who wish to top the merit list have to be reasonably prepared.

How to select Domain Subjects for a particular course in CUET?

Below are some important points that the candidate should keep in mind while selection g the CUET Domain Subject

Selection:

- When choosing Languages/domain-specific Subjects/and General Tests, candidates must refer to the requirements of their selected university, as choices must meet the university's standards.
- Interdisciplinary topics exist in several domain-specific subjects. In those fields, there will be two sections, with Section A being required for everyone. Section B may have various Sub Sections from which an applicant may choose one or more, depending on the program/eligibility university's requirements.
- Candidates must consult their selected university's requirements while choosing Languages, domain-specific Subjects, and General Tests, as their choices must meet the university's requirements.
- The University of Delhi has established that a candidate must appear in CUET only in subjects in which they have passed Class 12, but some other universities may not. As a result, candidates must check their desired universities to better understand.
